Frank Warren has revealed he is "working" on a potential deal which would see Cristiano Ronaldo return to the Premier League after a successful spell in Saudi Arabia.

Ronaldo has been in sensational form for Al-Nassr so far this season, scoring 17 goals and grabbing nine assists in 16 Saudi Pro League matches. He is the outright top scorer in the Saudi top-flight, with ex-Fulham star Alexander Mitrovic (16) in second and former Tottenham winger Georges-Kevin Nkoudou in third (14).

But the five-time Ballon d'Or winner has been heavily linked with a return to the Premier League - 12 months since joining Al-Nassr after leaving Manchester United. Newcastle have been namechecked as a possible suitor for Ronaldo in January, with the Magpies and Al-Nassr both owned by Public Investment Fund (PIF).

A move has been touted for the winter window and boxing promoter Warren has admitted - albeit with tongue firmly in cheek - that he is trying to secure a route back to England for Ronaldo, who has 103 Premier League goals during his career. "Working on it," Warren tweeted after a video emerged of him joking "he's signing for Arsenal" as Ronaldo sat and laughed.

Warren was sat next to Ronaldo at the "Day of Reckoning" boxing event in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, where Anthony Joshua was fighting in the main event against Otto Wallin, while the likes of Deontay Wilder and Daniel Dubois were involved on the undercard.
